Planning and Partnerships

Questions to Consider:

- What populations are we targeting? Where do those populations seek care?
- How can I get buy-in from potential partners? How can I establish common agreement on goals and expectations?

<th>Role</th>
<th>Motivators</th>
<th>Expectations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Which people/groups are vital?</td>
<td>Why is this partner appropriate for this project?</td>
<td>What is important to this person?</td>
<td>What am I asking partners to do?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

What are my talking points?

Assessment

1. What change are we ultimately trying to achieve?

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

2. What tools or resources do we need to assess where we are?

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

3. Who will complete the assessment?

________________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________________

4. What indicators or measurements will we use?

Implementing Change

Questions to Consider:

- How will we decide roles and responsibilities?
- How do we use available resources?
- Are there incremental steps to implementation or an order in which activities must be done?
